

This zine was produced by @georgerecomics as part of the global
Conscious Cities Festival 2020, in Adelaide
(on kurna Country), South Australia.

Ideas taken from talks and conversations by
Trish Hansen (Urban Mind Studio)
Dr Fiona Kerr (NeuroTech Institute)
Jodie Van Deventer (Committee for Adelaide)
Daniel Conley (Global Shapers Adelaide)
Fred Heidt and Alex Bruh (Youth Inc)
and the City of Adelaide.

HOW MIGHT CITIES STRENGTHEN TRUST AND EMPATHY

HOW DO THE PLACES WE LIVE IN,

LIVE IN US?

TRUST IS ELECTROCHEMICAL -

OUR SHARED VALUES MEET
WHEN WE GENUINELY CONNECT.

CITIES ARE LIVING SYSTEMS THAT NEED
TO BE NOURISHED AND FERTILISED

CULTURAL DIVERSITY IS NEEDED FOR ANY FLOURISHING, RESILIENT HUMAN SYSTEM.

STRONG TRUST CAN DRIVE
INNOVATION AND PRODUCTIVITY

SO WHAT ARE OUR INTENTIONS FOR OUR CITY?

TRUST REQUIRES US TO BE VULNERABLE

AND BE REALLY GOOD AT
HAVING DIFFICULT CONVERSATIONS

PRIORITISE THE RELATIONSHIP
OVER THE TASK

AND "MOVE AT THE SPEED OF TRUST".