

Child Safety in Spotlight

The Advertiser

Saturday 11th December 2021

Page 05 | Section: NEWS

Child safety in spotlight

THE SA Commissioner for Children and Young People, Helen Connolly, released her annual UN scorecard on children's rights in SA yesterday.

Her set of seven reports found progress in some areas, but failures in others, such as SA having no safeguard against schools using exclusionary or restrictive practices against students who have disabilities.

There was also an over-representation of children and young people living with disability in the child protection and youth justice systems.

Download the suite of CCYP 2021 Child Rights Progress Reports here

Read the full media release here